SATELLITE RUGBY CLUBS RESUME

The Hemel Stags Community team of Harrison Brough & Luke Ashton are again holding satellite rugby clubs at local secondary schools to encourage local boys to take up playing rugby league. The clubs are being held after school for Year 7 boys (under 13 years) and are free to join.

Schools taking part in the programme are Astley Cooper, Adeyfield, Cavendish, Hemel Hempstead and Longdean—all in Hemel Hempstead—as well as Kings Langley School, Tring School and Ashlyns (Berkhamstead).

Following the after schools' clubs the boys will take part in taster sessions based at the club's Pennine Way Astro pitch on Saturday Jan 20 & 27 and 3 Feb at noon. This, in turn, leads to the boys joining the Stags junior teams that play in the London & South East Junior League.

PENNINE WAY PROFILES

Judy & Maurice Darvell—Lottery Agents

Judy and Maurice are two of our CASHLINE door-to-door lottery collectors who are well known in the Bennetts End and Gadebridge areas of Hemel.

Throughout the year—in fine weather and foul—they cheerfully collect entries into the lottery and deliver the prizes to the lucky winning members.

And it's not only Judy & Maurice who help out at the club for their two sons—Mark and Peter—can often be seen at Pennine Way on League 1 match days acting as car park and ground safety stewards. It's all very much a family affair for which we are all most grateful.
