PENNINE WAY PROFILES

Bob Brown—Chairman

Bob emigrated to England in 1980 from his native Australia and was instrumental in setting up Hemel Stags for whom he has been a player, coach and administrator.

Previously he had been involved in similar roles in the sport in Australia and Papua New Guinea.

Bob's main roles at the club have been to develop the best facilities for all users; to encourage local youth to play the sport; and to compete in the highest possible competitions.

He works closely with the club's General

Manager and others to ensure the club is operated efficiently and profitability for all.
