NATIONAL LEAGUE 1 RESUME TRAINING

The Stags' National League 1 squad have commenced pre-season training under new Director of Rugby Dean Thomas supported by player-coach Mitch Stringer and Hemel Stags old boy Jack Howieson, both of whom gained international hours with Scotland.

The Stags have retained a dozen players from last season's campaign with the remainder being newcomers. Of particular interest has been the signing of the Greek RL captain Stefanos Bastas—a powerful running back row/threequarter.

With the demise of Oxford & Gloucestershire All Golds the League has reverted to a straight home & away format.

Prime fixture will be the May Bank Holiday home clash with former Super League club Bradford Bulls.

PENNINE WAY PROFILE

Nigel Crow—Volunteer

If electricity flows through it at Pennine Way you can be certain that Nigel Crow has been involved in some way.

As our resident electrician Nigel plays an important role in keeping the club operating—whether it's a simple electrical problem; looking after our security operations or maintaining the club's extensive range of floodlights.

Living just a drop kick away, Nigel can be found at the club most evenings of the week and is one the club's true stalwarts.
